Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H R Hoagland we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best [illegible] of fastening shafts to vehicles that has ever been used

It fastens without bolt or screw and is therefore easily and speedily separated It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from that rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant and is convenient, safe and secure

It is easy to change to this style from any buggy or other vehicle now in use and with small expense We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore considered the best in use

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON CITY

THE LAMENTATIONS [illegible] TO WHAT [illegible] OLD FOGY IDEAS—OBSTRUCTIVE POLICY OF DEMOCRATS COMPARED WITH THE LIBERAL POLICY OF THE REPUBLICANS—THE INTERESTS AND PROGRESS OF OREGON DEPENDENT ON THE CONTINUED ASCENDENCY OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

WASHINGTON D C Feb 21 1870

ED OREGONIAN

I apprehend you do not fully appreciate the enthusiasm with which we old Douglas men followed the banner of the gallant Illinoisan—the Little Giant of the West nor do you greatly sympathize with us in our devotion to the memory of General Cass or Wm. L Marcy And for the same reasons you do not apprehend the mortification experienced by every true Democrat when he was compelled to witness the degradation of the party when it became in the Buchanan Administration the apologist for slavery secession treason and rebellion Whatever may be said of the political views of Stephen A Douglas questions not now in the political arena, there can be no doubt of his patriotism his devotion to the rights of the people and his adherence to the progressive movements of the age It was these characteristics which gave him such a hold on the affections of the people of the great Northwest so that in his herculean efforts to save from total destruction the organization and prestige of a once noble but then demoralized and waning party his adherents followed his lead into the thickest of every battle, with much of the same spirit and devotion as did those gallant cavaliers of former times follow the nodding plume and ever-lifted lance of the brave Henry, King of Navarre." Douglas clearly foresaw the coming battle for national freedom, and with that sagacity which marked him as a leader of men he strove to carry his party over to the right side. He was for progress and for the right, and when the clash of arms came, he was the first to hasten to a President who had defeated the ambition of his life proffer his support demand a short but vigorous war and a regenerated Republic Let the Douglas men of Oregon think of these things before they cast their next vote Let the young men of Oregon who will cast their first vote, ponder well, before they cast it for a party behind the age, defeated on every battlefield for principle, and now floundering in that slough of despond, whose only lights are the ignis fatuus of rotening platforms and old fogy ideas

For several years the Democracy has been stealthily and laboriously hunting around, partly after the style of a burglar trying to break jail and then again in imitation of the owl hunting in the glare of a midday sun for some hollow log within which to poke its muddled head—for a platform, on which to go before the people Opposition to the war against the rebels was tried until Democracy and rebellion became almost synonymous terms Then, after the rebels were soundly threshed Democracy valiantly raised its arms against the right of colored men to hold and enjoy civil and political rights, and was again defeated Then they went back on the old maxim that honesty is the best policy and proposed to repudiate the national debt and have been defeated on that and now they propose another—

OPPOSITION TO RAILROADS IN THE WEST

This new platform was announced in the United States Senate by Senators Thurman and Casserly who were evidently put forward as representatives of the Democracy last Saturday in the debate over a little railroad bill to aid the west side road in your State The specious reason assigned for the new platform is that Democracy desires to preserve the public lands for the actual settlers, and they go on to argue the question as if a railroad land grant actually wiped off the face of the globe so much land Their charge that such a grant takes from the settlers, even any land, is not only positively false but on the contrary the railroad grants secure the land to the settlers by taking it out of the hands of speculators in military warrants, agricultural scrip, and other means to cover vast areas of good lands All railroad lands must now be sold to actual settlers in quantities not more than one quarter section at two dollars and a half per acre and yet the Democracy would prohibit actual settlers the privilege of paying that price per acre with a railroad improvement and then invite him to go on the same lands for homesteads, and starve without any road to get to market Every man desiring a home or a farm or land will repudiate this pretended friendship of the Democracy which invites settlers into a wilderness and to the comforts of a Snake Indian

The land grant system was fairly inaugurated in 1850 and though often assailed the wisdom of the policy has been repeatedly vindicated by overwhelming votes in both houses of Congress by all parties

But whence comes this new this demagogic love for the settler? From the Democracy from the same party which opposed the passage of the homestead law to secure free homes to the landless If honest men Thurman and Casserly ought to hang their heads in shame for this onslaught on the rights and claims of the hardy pioneers who push out along the railroads and plant schools churches civilization and national glory and prosperity in the departing footsteps of savages and barbarism

Thus we again see this Democratic party arraying itself against the progress of the age the development of the West and the rights of the pioneers

It is barely possible that in the coming canvass in your State the Democracy may attempt to get clear of all their odious record by some kind of expurgation process which if resorted to in good faith may be expected to produce contortions in Democratic bowels in comparison with which the chicken small pox and rinderpest would be [illegible] delightful But young men should remember these facts this past record and select for their political association a party which has always been true to freedom the rights of the people and the progress of the age Don't go and cast your first vote with a party which would stop your railroads fence up your highways and send your State back to pack mules to make her way through the country by bridle paths [illegible]

I cannot close this communication without [illegible] your Senator Williams [illegible] [illegible] but he did not [illegible] of the State [illegible] in the Senate [illegible] influence and [illegible] The Democrats voted [illegible] and the Republicans [illegible] interested in the future [illegible] should remember these facts [illegible] accordingly

A German scientist has recently created a considerable sensation by the publication of a pamphlet in which he takes the ground that the zodiacal light is rapidly concentrating and will soon make its appearance as a second moon

A polecat got out of his cage in New York the other evening and [illegible] up Broadway A policeman mistaking the animal for a [illegible] gave chase and captured him. The M. P. went home and buried a new uniform in the yard.

The Christian Register (Unitarian) rejoices that the New York Independent [illegible] ly upon the Liberal Christian platform; and the Congregationalist (Orthodox) also rejoices that the Independent thus openly professes what it has long taught though pretending to be evangelical!

Says the Harrison (Texas) Flag "The flow of emigration into Texas does not abate in the [illegible] Every steamboat up Red River is [illegible] with people who are coming to Texas while the [illegible] who have taken the overland [illegible] In one more year our State will be [illegible] filled up

Attempts to commit suicide are [illegible] to be punished in Massachusetts, upon the principle that attempts to commit a crime are indictable as misdemeanors at common law A person who recently endeavored to shoot him [illegible] has been bound over in W[illegible] for trial in the Criminal Court.

A little reconstructed Southern girl, five years old asked a colored servant in the [illegible] of a theological examination, what the fifteenth commandment was. The reply that there were only ten commandments was scornfully received, and the child gravely announced that the fifteenth commandment was that the colored people [illegible] vote

The United States Surveyor is trying to [illegible] the boundary line [illegible] and Dakota, the Missouri river, which is the natural boundary, having made some curious transfers during the floods of last spring. Cutting across a neck of Dakota, near Sioux City it put [illegible] of that Territory and 3,000 acres of land on the Nebraska side.

The Boston [illegible] says. "The best manuscript we [illegible] is from writers upwards of sixty years of age They were taught the old [illegible] round hand so universal at the beginning of the century, every letter of which was so distinct as to not be mistaken for another" [illegible] no more illegible hand than this [illegible] it is not very well written.

The Gaulois states that, so far from the [illegible] ty between the Khedive and the Sultan being at an end, the [illegible] is now [illegible] an army of 40,000 men on the Egyptian side of the Suez Canal On the other hand the Grand Vizier is preparing to encounter him with 25,000 [illegible] troops wholly unprovided with [illegible] arms. The supplies for the Egyptian army are drawn from Austria. A recent vice-regal order prohibits the use of the Turkish language in Egyptian councils; and another relieves [illegible] all members of the Egyptian administration who are Turks by birth, or who, by any other title belong to the Suzerain

The late George Peabody though he gave away millions, was exceedingly close in all matters of personal expenditure. When in Portland, Me., he invariably hired an old rattletrap hack, the driver of which charged fifteen cents [illegible] of twenty five. The story goes that when he was last in Portland, and was invited to a dinner party, he took the fifteen cent carriage. As the driver approached the house where the dinner was given and in front of which a large number of fine hacks and splendid family carriages were drawn up he rose in his seat and bawled out at top of his voice Get out of the way there and make room I've got the biggest toad in the puddle.

Since (1861) April 4, the United States have built one hundred and [illegible] ships of war, of which one hundred and twenty-four were built wholly in private yards, which also [illegible] the works of forty-nine others. By purchase or transfer the navy acquired 407 [illegible] of which 362 have been sold, 97 lost, &c., and [illegible] are still in service. The total tonnage [illegible] was 171,837 The total built was 106,000 tons, the number of guns carried 1 710 [illegible] sold the Department has [illegible] $10, 764,610 There were in [illegible] April 1, 1861, 86 vessels, with a tonnage of 118,460, and an armament of 2 409 making a total of 3,319 guns and 456 303 tons

The Hartford Post tells a story of a [illegible] who once got drunk in New York on the Fourth of July It was at a time when ice was unknown in summer in the country. The [illegible] his [illegible] but [illegible] in [illegible] that it was a prodigiously hot day, and the lemons and ice in the punch did look so cool and inviting that he couldn't resist the temptation, and [illegible] he actually did drink it [illegible] A brother on a back seat listened attentively but incredulously to the defense and at its conclusion rose "I ain't no objection" said he "to a man's getting drunk if he owns up to it and is sorry for it that's a thing a man's liable to, and p'raps sometimes he can't help it but when the [illegible] comes in here and undertakes to excuse him[illegible] in any such a way as that—talking about [illegible] in July I go for jerkin him out for lyin"

The last Army Register gives some figures that are of interest in connection with Gen. Logan's bill for the reduction of the army It shows that in the twenty five infantry regiments there are forty five field officers who came from West Point, twenty nine from the volunteer service, and one from the ranks of the army The figures with reference to unattached officers are as follows 61 from West Point of whom 17 are waiting orders [illegible] from the volunteer service of whom 126 are waiting orders 66 from the ranks of the army of whom 19 are waiting orders. Of the 150 officers on the retired list West Point has 71 the volunteer service 65 and the ranks of the army 24 [illegible] field officers of the cavalry West Point has [illegible] the volunteer service 22 and the ranks of the army Of the field officers of the artillery West Point has [illegible] the volunteer service and [illegible] ranks of the army

The [illegible] Autographs of the [illegible] relates a little domestic fracas which was brought to [illegible] a day or two before What was [illegible] exuberance of temper [illegible] a family broil [illegible] some little coolness was existing between husband and wife and as company was [illegible] all parties should have been on their good behavior But the husband wanted the good lady of the house to pass the bread to the guests which she refused to do because she fancied he had not shown her sufficient attention On her refusal the lord of the household who should have known better seized a red hot potato and with dire intent dashed into the face of his spouse She replied with a tea saucer which [illegible] countered upon the left elbow and when she returned to the conflict [illegible] the [illegible] then [illegible] with her martial cloak around her [illegible] the husband's [illegible]

Essential Differences of Parties

The signs of the times are not illusory they are clear and unmistakable All the party differences of the last fifteen years have been swept away The success of the Fifteenth amendment closes the last issue growing out of the slavery agitation and the great civil war A new condition of things is rising Party issues are taking new forms The next great issue is shaping itself rapidly The hour is at hand when every voter must take sides for or against a policy for the development of our great internal resources for fostering the growth and progress of the country and especially the new States of the West, and for encouraging assisting and protecting American enterprise and American labor

The Republican party can point with pride to its record in favor of the physical improvement of the country From the date of its origin as a party it has taken advanced ground in advocating and perfecting measures calculated to advance the interests of the whole country, by cheapening transportation rendering remote regions accessible by means of railroads, increasing production and developing resources that else would still be lying dormant and unproductive The greatest achievements of the country in this direction are the fruit of Republican policy and Republican effort. That energy which is rapidly filling the Great West with inhabitants which is converting the former dwelling places of savages into the prosperous homes of civilization, and which has inaugurated a grand railroad system that is now in full career of progress, and promises soon to unite the most distant of the States and Territories with the older and more advanced portions of the country, has been stimulated by the policy which the Republican party announced in its first platform, and to which it has ever since steadily adhered

Individual capital, enterprise and powers, especially in new communities can rarely if ever, be equal to the construction of works of the highest public utility This fact the Republican party acknowledges, and therefore it stands ready to pledge the assistance of the Government to meritorious schemes of internal improvement This assistance, in a new State like Oregon, can be most properly rendered by grants of land Through such a policy we secure the construction of great and useful public works, especially railroads, and at the same time we open to settlement vast tracts of hitherto inaccessible lands. Wealth is thus created and homes are established where none existed before. A State like ours, instead of being allowed to struggle alone and unassisted, receives the help and encouragement of the General Government; it is rescued from isolation and is pushed forward in a career of prosperity. But against this beneficent system the Democratic party arrays itself Internal improvement and Democracy as now constituted are at deadly variance. Not another land-grant shall we have if that party can prevent it, no more encouragement or assistance shall we obtain from the Government in the arduous work of developing our State, if that party can defeat us in this aim. It plants itself squarely in the way of our progress and insults us by denial when we ask favors similar to those which have been granted heretofore to other States of the Union

This obstructive policy, let it be remembered, is traditional with the Democratic party It was the lifelong effort of Henry Clay to secure the adoption of a consistent system of internal improvements, fostered and aided by the General Government, but he had to combat Democratic opposition and only met with partial success. After Clay had passed away the Republican party came into being, and at once took up the great American idea of developing the newer portions of the country through the encouragement of the Government. Their first platform, put forth in 1856, demanded the construction of "a railroad to the Pacific ocean," and held that "the General Government ought to render immediate and efficient aid in its construction." The Democratic platform of the same year not only failed to meet the demand for this great enterprise, but on the contrary actually discouraged the prosecution of what it termed "a corrupting system of internal improvements' Four years more elapsed, and the Democratic party, still in supreme power, did nothing for the Pacific railroad. Again, in 1860, the Republicans in their national platform, repeated the demand for Government aid for a Pacific railroad, and as soon as practicable after obtaining control of the Government they inaugurated the great enterprise which last year was pushed to completion.

Besides this great trans-continental railway divers other railroad enterprises have been aided and pushed forward. All the new States have received assistance in this direction. The Southern Pacific is this day in progress of construction, and the Northern Pacific is begun. In Oregon one railroad has been inaugurated under the same liberal policy and we have hopes that more will be But at this juncture when we are asking aid for a new enterprise of incalculable advantage to our State the Democratic party, as represented in Congress, enters its protest against us It goes back to where it stood thirty years ago, and with its narrow view of the requirements of the country it pronounces for a policy which strikes a paralyzing blow at our most important interests.

The people of Oregon can see and appreciate the differences of parties in relation to these most important matters Is the progress of our State to be arrested by the adoption of the Democratic policy, or is it to be continued and assured by an adherence to the policy of the Republicans? What have the people to say about this matter?

Editorial Notes

Those who hold that Oregon has not received favors enough in the way of land grants for internal improvements will easily see how important it is not to send men to Congress who are in sympathy with the Democrats now there who contend against all grants of land

The Oregon City Enterprise is much agitated and displeased in soul because the Court of Clackamas county caused to be printed in the OREGONIAN some information relative to precinct boundaries in that county The same matter was printed in the Enterprise and paid for liberally but as the information it contained was very important to everybody in Clackamas, and as it was certain that only a few persons would see it in the Enterprise it was sent also for publication in this paper The propriety of this will be apparent when it is stated that the circulation of the OREGONIAN in Clackamas county far exceeds the entire regular subscription list of the Enterprise

The daily [illegible] of Salem having given up the ghost [illegible] the Albany [illegible] and the Corvallis [illegible] in terms which appear to have been very soothing to the feelings of the Press man In the last weekly Press the editor acknowledges these obituary notices thanks all its friends and intimates that it will with pleasure return the [illegible] when ever opportunity shall offer This is almost as good as the statement of another equally distinguished editor [illegible] that he would at any time publish with great pleasure notices of the marriage or death of any of his friends

This is how the Democrats do it in Yamhill A few days since one [illegible] Hembree a Democratic apostle and leader in Yamhill went over to Forest Grove in Washington county to look for sheep He had been directed to call upon a Mr Hughes at Forest Grove as a man likely to know about the business and to be willing to assist him in buying the sheep he wanted There are two men of the name of Hughes at Forest Grove one a Democrat and the other a Republican Upon arriving at the town Hembree inquired for Mr Hughes and was directed to his house Finding Mr Hughes Hembree says "I am told Mr Hughes that you have some sheep to sell" Mr Hughes replies, "Not that I know of unless it might be a very few mutton sheep" Hembree "Well the fact is Mr Hughes I don't want to buy any sheep I was directed to call on you, as a reliable Democrat for information as to where we can raise some Democratic voters for Yamhill county" Hughes "Well then I guess I am not the Hughes you are looking for I guess you want to see the Hughes that lives just over yonder" Hembree—(With a cut at his horse) "I guess so too! Get up, here!" (another cut at his horse) and Hembree vanished in a cloud of mud—and went to see t other Hughes

Those who are accustomed to descant on "Radical extravagance" would find something worth their attention if they would only look at Democratic doings in the city of New York The civil list of the United States embraces all the pay and public expenses of Senators and Congressmen, with contingencies of both Houses, printing, advertising, library of Congress, botanic garden, Court of Claims, salaries of the President, Vice President Cabinet officers and Clerks, publishing laws, diplomatic salaries and expense of foreign intercourse, the vast machinery of the Treasury and Internal Revenue, the Mint and its branches, the expense of Territorial Government, of National loans, every expense pertaining to the care of public lands, Indian affairs and Pensions, the Patent Office, the Washington Police, Smithsonian Institution, various hospitals, all war expenses except the pay of the army and navy, Post Office, and Agriculture, and all the expenses of United States Courts, save fees to District Attorneys and Marshals The entire appropriation for all this work for the year ending next June is $23,972 353 80 The New York Tribune shows that the expenses of that city under the Tammany ring for 1869 were $23,920,295 32—within $52 048 48 of the entire civil list expenses of the United States Government at home and abroad Look at the figures United States, $23,972 353 80 City of New York, $23,920,295 32 Wouldn't it be a promising prospect for tax payers if the party which governs New York had control of the Government of the country

Newspaper Topics

The Corvallis Mercury says that "the importation of voters is carried on with an effrontery which puts to blush all former efforts at crime from the same source' In charity to the Mercury we ought perhaps to take this as an open confession of Democratic sins

The Evening Call justly thinks that the Republican party has a continued mission It must uphold our system of public schools, based upon non sectarianism which are now menaced, and besides, by the triumph of the Democratic party "our policy of internal improvements would be ignored and the Pacific States retarded for a century to come'

It is edifying to see those who once couldn't find it in their hearts to encourage a war even for the preservation of the American Union, now insisting that the United States shall go to war with foreign nations with scarcely a color of pretext for it The editor of the Albany Democrat is one of this class, he would have the United States plunge into a war with Spain, on account of Cuba

We have it from the La Grande Sentinel that "the Government of the United States is one which draws all its life and vitality from the States" This is what all the nullifiers down to Jefferson Davis have taught, but it is not the doctrine of the Constitution The Government of the United States is a Government of the people and the States have nothing whatever to do with that Government save only in the one matter of electing Senators

A speck of war has arisen between the Commercial and the Salem Press The latter does not like the independence of the former and in return gets hit thus "The editor of the Press is not the 'oldest Democratic editor on the [this] coast' That he is, perhaps the most superannuated, will not be intelligently questioned As Mr Dick in David Copperfield could never keep Charles the First out of his Memorial, neither can the Press man get his own No One out of the way" Very neatly done

SAN DIEGO GOLD EXCITEMENT

The reports published yesterday of the recent gold discoveries in the vicinity of San Diego seem to have created great excitement among the adventurers and those anxious to take chances in the pursuit of sudden wealth Through yesterday the store of Messrs Rountree & McMullin was the scene of a dense crowd anxious to look at [illegible] they could not possess the extraordinary ore Several parties were applied to by persons anxious to reach San Diego before the sailing of the regular steamer to charter a steamer Should the steamer [illegible] arrive this morning as expected she will probably leave within twenty four hours for San Diego

PARTICULAR ACCOUNT OF THE NEW MINES

[From the San Diego Bulletin March [illegible]]

Within the past few days however evidence sufficient to convince the most skeptical that that country is extremely rich in gold has been produced During the first of the week a number of specimens of quartz weighing perhaps a pound each were exhibited which were said to come from a ledge discovered in the Coleman mining district at the head waters of the San Diego river They were excessively rich in gold, and some smaller pieces contained almost as much gold as quartz Quite a number started out to locate extensions It was stated that several hundred pounds of the same were on the way here

Last Thursday evening H C Bickers and J Gowan arrived with about 1 200 pounds of the richest quartz for so large a quantity we have ever seen About one third of it (the largest pieces) were placed on exhibition in the show window of C Dunham, on Fifth street, and immediately drew an excited and eager crowd The news flew like wild fire, and soon the whole town was agog to learn the particulars. Messrs. Bickers and Gowan are well known to many of our citizens, and great confidence is placed in their representations Mr Bickers is an old miner and mill man, and Mr Gowan is a practical surveyor

The ledge was discovered by Mr. Bickers who was prospecting in company with Mr Gowan and Dr J B. Wells of this place, and the three made the first location on the 22d of February, Washington's birthday, and named the lead the "George Washington" They made a location for themselves and friends of 4,400 feet The location is about two and a half miles from the mining camp of the Coleman district, and is said by Mr Coleman, the Recorder, to be in that district It is near the head waters of the San Diego river, and about 60 miles from here by the wagon road Mr Gowan took an observation of the light house, and finds the lead north 54 degrees east from Point Loma It is six miles due north from the northernmost of the Cuyamaca mountains The Volcan mountain is three miles north It is on the ridge forming the water shed between here and the desert and within a mile of the summit of that ridge The San Felipe ranch is nearly due north

The quartz is quite free from sulphurets or base metal the gold showing to good advantage in its virgin state The ledge is about four feet wide It is situated in talcose slate formation They had gone down on the ledge but six feet At the surface it is somewhat broken but as they descend it is better defined Around in the vicinity of the croppings are large quantities of float rock decomposed and very rich

Two other locations had been made at the time of their leaving—one by Hamill & Co., and the other by Box & Co The discovery has created an intense excitement there, and about 150 men were on the ground making locations, portions of which had been jumped Mr Hamill found the rock quite as rich, and as extensive as it is on the original location, but did not dare to let it be known for fear of jumpers Box & Co were keeping their developments strictly secret

These three locations cover a length of nearly two miles, the whole of which shows a distinct and well defined lead. The talcose slate formation extends for miles and disappears in the desert at the east. No effort has been made to trace the ledge much beyond the locations but so far as it has been sought, it has been found To the west the slate shortly gives place to granite, but it is said there is good indication of the continuance of the ledge

Another ledge has been discovered about 1,500 feet down the hill from the first, running parallel and is called the Martha Washington It is said also, to be rich in gold

Mr Bickers says there is an area of from 60 to 100 square miles, which he has taken a hasty glance over, and is confident that it is all a rich gold bearing country The country is filled with fine and fertile valleys, the hills and mountains are all well covered with grass and there is considerable timber One live oak tree measured 18 feet 6 inches in circumference The Cuyamaca pineries are but a few miles distant A sawmill is being erected and will start April 1st.

A new district has been organized called the Julian District It should be remembered by those making locations that there is an act of Congress by which the owners of mining property can obtain title by United States patent, and all local laws in conflict with this act will be null and void

The rock on exhibition at Mr Dunham's show window is in eight or ten pieces the largest of which weighs perhaps a hundred pounds It is so rich that the eye can scarcely rest on a spot and not see the auriferous metal Some also indicate the presence of silver in large quantity resembling in appearance the blue and white quartz of the Comstock lead It will be sent to San Francisco by to day's steamer Mr Gowan left for San Francisco last Friday morning, by stage via Los Angeles He will record their location in the Land Office at Los Angeles, for the purpose of obtaining Government title

Estimates regarding the amount of gold contained in the 1 200 pounds vary widely ranging from $[illegible]00 to $10 000 It is thought by the best judges that there is from $1 000 to $2 000 contained therein The excitement caused by its exhibition is intense Many started immediately for the new discoveries many have gone there since and others are leaving daily

LATER

Mr Sherman, who has been prospecting in the newly discovered gold region, came in last night and reports that richer leads have been struck than the Washington Lead A company of Chinamen have struck a ledge that is 50 per cent richer Nuggets of gold have been found that will weigh from one to two ounces The greatest excitement prevails in that locality, and men who have located claims are obliged to guard them continually

AN OREGONIAN IN CHICAGO"—The Chicago Republican of February 23d contains the following mention of a faithless spouse who had deserted his wife in White Pine and we have [illegible] half suspect it to be Henry Wag[illegible] [illegible] this city A man named Henry W[illegible] was brought up before Justice [illegible] yesterday charged with living in an [illegible] of adultery with one Mary S[illegible] [illegible] formerly lived in California where with a wife and [illegible] employment he was on the high road to [illegible] wealth to happiness Gradually [illegible] with a discontent for his [illegible] of life and was seized also with the silver fever raging principally about White Pine. Accordingly one fine morning he and his wife packed up their [illegible] and not long afterwards found [illegible] that region. But even here there was no [illegible] the erratic Wagner and he left his wife and [illegible] and arrived at Chicago a few days ago. His wife had been somewhat troubled at his non appearance and suspecting that something wrong [illegible] happened, she followed him to Chicago. It was not long before she discovered her errant spouse living at No 143 Monroe street with the woman S[illegible] — as her husband. The matter was placed in the hands of the police, a warrant was obtained and the prisoner was tried before Justice [illegible] and sent for trial in bail of $300

CITY.

CONSCIENCE SMITTEN.—When that fund in the Treasury Department at Washington, known as the "Conscience Fund" was first established, the idea was hooted at by men of good, sound intelligence, and the Secretary of the Treasury himself, no doubt failed to realize the full effects of the movement he had instituted. Thousands of dollars, stolen from the Government, have been returned to the Conscience Fund, by persons who, reflecting of their conduct, or the circumstances which led them into the taking of the amounts, have adopted the method provided for them to relieve their consciences of the burden resting upon it. The plan works admirably, not only in Washington City, but here, in the far Northwest, instances are quite common where men or persons have found it essential to relieve their minds in a manner by relenting of some act committed which they know to be wrong. A case or two to point will serve us to illustrate. For instance it will be recollected what a wet, rainy evening we had last Friday. Well, one of our down-town friends, who happened to be out in that storm, had occasion to call at a neighbor's house. The umbrella he carried was very wet, and it was left at the outer door. Upon pursuing his walk the article had disappeared. Search was instituted, but nowhere was the umbrella to be found. The person who took it, however, feeling offended in his own conscience, beyond a doubt, returned the umbrella on the following evening, after dark. But as mysterious as this affair seems to be, when taken in all its details, the end is not yet. At or about the time the umbrella was returned, a number of fowls: chickens, turkeys, etc., disappeared from the same premises, and it is thought that to-night the conscience smitten personage will return the feathers, and take something else. Verily

"Whatever creed be taught, or land be trod,
Man's conscience is the oracle of God."

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY J.—The Trial Jurors summoned for the term were called, and no cause having been set for trial, they were dismissed until to-morrow at 10 A. M. Names of Jurors: R. W. SNAG REMOVED.—A gentleman from Rainier, [illegible] informed us that an ugly snag, above [illegible] in the Columbia river, which has been [illegible] to boatmen for many years, was removed [illegible] a few nights since. Actual fact: it appears that some fishermen, knowing the nature of the snag, and not presuming but [illegible] was safe enough to hold any fish they [illegible], attached their sturgeon hooks to it one evening. In the morning, lo, the snag had [illegible]. They immediately set out in boats [illegible] after considerable search did find [illegible] going down to sea. The fish was ten feet long, and very [illegible]. It was brought to Portland and divided [illegible] the hotels and boarding houses.

[illegible].—This troupe returned from [illegible] day, and gave the benefit, advertised, to the Fire Department. The house was well filled and the performance was as excellent and varied as usual. The Department, we are pleased to know, has realized handsomely from this generous act by the Gregory Troupe. To-night the troupe will give their last entertainment in this city, as they are going away on the steamer Ajax, to meet an engagement at San Francisco. On the [illegible] of their farewell, they will offer an entire change of programme, introducing several new and beautiful acts.

[illegible].—Sundry petty larcenies having been perpetrated in this vicinity very recently, and the [illegible] appearing to be upon that class of articles [illegible] for the support of a hearty digestion, it is thought by many, who were in a way to know something about the manner in which guerrillas did up their jobs of forage during the war, that a body of Quantrell's famous band have been [illegible] here, to live amongst us and vote the Democratic ticket in June—until which time they must manage some how or another to pick up a living.

CIRCUIT COURT—UPTON, JUDGE.—No business of importance was transacted in the Circuit Court yesterday. A recommendation on the subject of the rules of practice signed by a majority of the Bar, was presented to His Hon. Judge Upton, and consideration of the same was set for Saturday morning before the opening of Court, at which time the members of the Bar are requested to be present at the Court room.

LECTURE.—Remember the third lecture this evening, by Col. Pardee, at Philharmonic Hall, for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association. We are advised that Col. Pardee has a high reputation as a lecturer and a brilliant record as a soldier; which will enable him to treat the subject chosen: "Pen Sketches of the War," in a manner which cannot fail to deeply interest his audience.

SALES OF CITY PROPERTY.—Lot 8, in block 30, sold on Saturday last by A. B. Richardson, auctioneer, was purchased by Mr. Thomas M. Richardson at $1,325. The other sales reported yesterday, as having taken place at the same time were for $2,359. As in the above case, Mr. Richardson was auctioneer.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The sailing of the steamer Ajax for San Francisco, has been postponed till Friday, at 4 o'clock P. M.

WORK RESUMED.—Work was resumed upon the filling and excavation on the lower terminus of the O. C. R. R. yesterday. At noon, the men with wheelbarrows had moved a very large amount of earth, which evinces how rapidly the work will be carried along when the Pony locomotive is brought to their assistance now in a few days.

FROZEN HYDRANTS.—The weather has been a source of great annoyance to persons in many parts of the city, where the service pipes have frozen, and cut off the water supply.

FURNITURE SALE.—To-day, at 10 o'clock, the furniture in the premises corner of Sixth and Morrison street will be sold at auction by Mr. Richardson.

THE CALIFORNIA.—We understand that the steamer California arrived at Astoria yesterday soon after the Ajax left there for Portland.

THE WEST.

Camp Lyon has been delivered by the military into the hands of the purchasers, Messrs. West & Westgate. The present owners intend to carry on farming and rearing of stock.

The Owyhee Avalanche wants the Owyhee country annexed to Nevada, but the Idaho World objects. The last named paper says, however, that "if Owyhee is to be annexed, Nevada had better take Boise and Ada counties, also."

An editor in Litchfield, Minnesota, invited attention to the following record of the progress of that town: February, 1869, "howling wilderness;" August, 1869, wheat field; November, 1869, county seat; January, 1870, United States Land Office.

Wells, Fargo & Co. shipped from Owyhee during the year 1869, $835,181 07 worth of bullion, coin value. The total product of our mines for '69 may safely be put down at a million dollars coin, as the aggregate carried away in private hands would easily bring it up to that amount.

Virginia, Nevada, was visited by a tremendous gale lately. The Enterprise reports: "Speaking of the gale yesterday, one gentleman said to another, 'Why, it's a regular typhoon!' The gentleman to whom the remark was made repeated it to a friend, when said friend laughed heartily, saying, 'Ha, ha, ha! why, d—n it, he meant tycoon!'"

The mine known as the Gold Hill, in Boise county, Idaho, is turning out to be one of the most valuable mines in the Territory. They have a 25 stamp mill. One of their tunnels is over 500 feet long. They have recently struck the ledge at a distance of between two and three hundred feet. The level that they are running drains the mine at a depth of over 600 feet.

Beachey's stage, which left Hamilton for Elko on February 23d, was stopped in the evening by three highwaymen, near Telegraph Station, and robbed of bullion valued at $1,656. Two of the robbers were captured the next day about 15 miles beyond Diamond springs, having been tracked for 40 miles. They were riding horses which they had stolen from a Hamilton milkman. The bullion was found buddied under a pile of manure at Fairview Station, near White Pine.

An Omaha paper gives the particulars of a desperate fight which took place recently between Sioux and Crow Indians, near the Yellowstone river. A party of 29 Crows came down afoot to steal horses from the Sioux and met two young Sioux and killed one, while the other escaped and gave the alarm. The Sioux warriors hurried in pursuit and found the Crows on the top of a sharp butte, which they had hastily fortified. The Sioux numbered 300; they charged several times without result, leaving five of their number dead, but finally the Sioux leaped into the fort and the affair ended in true savage style, with butcher-knives. All the Crows were killed. The Sioux lost 17 killed and a number wounded. The Ogallallas have constant war parties out murdering and stealing on the Platte.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

LANDS IN EASTERN PART OF TERRITORY OPEN TO ENTRY.

Mr. L. P. Beach, of Olympia, who surveyed portions of Eastern Washington Territory, last year, went over to Vancouver yesterday morning with the maps of his surveys, to be filed in the Land Office at that place. The country surveyed by Mr. Beach, is now open to entry under the laws of the United States. It is understood that there are numerous and large tracts, in the region surveyed—in the neighborhood of Colville—which are valuable for farming or grazing purposes, and a tide of emigration that way may be now expected.

PUGET SOUND MATTERS—SUDDEN DEATH—SHIPPING.

[From the Olympia Transcript, March 12.]

Mr. Joseph Walker, who resided on the middle road from Bush Prairie to Mound Prairie, died on Tuesday, about 10 A. M., aged about 62 years. He was formerly from Glencoe, Canada West, where we understand, he has relatives residing. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that he came to his death by the rupture of a blood vessel.

A large French ship arrived (at Port Townsend) Thursday morning from San Francisco to load at Utsalady, with lumber and spars for the North of Germany. She has just returned from Japan. She is 1,350 tons burthen, drawing 17 feet of water light and 22 feet loaded.

The steamer J. B. Libby did not return from below this week, and it is reported that she has hauled off from the route between Olympia and Port Townsend, on account of a lack of business.

Charles Watts was convicted at Port Townsend on Wednesday of the murder of A. Hibbard on San Juan Island. A new trial will be asked for.

CUSTOMS APPOINTMENTS.

[From the Port Townsend Message, March 11th.]

Edward Eldridge, Inspector of Customs at Bellingham Bay, has been removed and Thomas Stratton appointed in his place. Alfred Pettigrove has been appointed Inspector to fill vacancy. Oregon Hastings is appointed Inspector in place of D. W. C. Dennison, resigned.

VARIOUS MATTERS DOWN THE SOUND.

Several Iowa families have settled in Whatcom county within the last few months.

The Swinomish ers are petitioning Congress to change the name of their post office to La Conner.

[From the Seattle Intelligencer, March 7.]

We are informed that the oysters which were brought from across the bay and planted on the tide-flats south of town, are in a flourishing condition. A good opportunity is now presented for establishing a lucrative business.

Lest the Sergeant Buzfuzes of the Oregon Democracy may overlook so fine a specimen of declamation as the following, we copy it. It is from a Kentucky Democratic Legislator, and would serve an excellent purpose as the peroration of an Oregon Democratic oration, or as an appendix to a Red hot Sunday leader. "Mr. Chairman, the people will ere long place a party in power who will not speak alone from the earthquake and the storm. But they will speak of peace, they will speak of love, they will speak like angels speak above. And this nation, now under the tearful twilight of an eclipse, will be encircled with a bow of hope, and the Supreme Court will still stand with only a surge washed base, while upon its summit the lamp of constitutional liberty and law will still continue to burn."

The Bishop of London has rebuked an Evangelical rector in London for preaching in Presbyterian pulpits when in Scotland. An Episcopal congregation in Dundee, on the other hand, has unanimously voted to sever its connection with the Bishop who refused to allow them an Evangelical and thoroughly Protestant rector.

A few Democratic papers in the country manage to keep up a furious howl against the Fifteenth amendment. They are as much offended by its adoption as they were by the capture of Vicksburg or the surrender of Lee.

The editor of the Marietta (Ohio) Register, in his "editorial correspondence" from Columbus, writes of himself, "the Senator from our district." He could set up in the business of an egotist against our Barish.

None so simple, none so quiet, none so efficient as the GROVER & BAKER Sewing Machine. WM. CURRIER & Co., Agents.

RAILROAD MATTERS are very likely to be lively this spring. The East Side Company will engage a large force of men to complete their road to Albany, and the West Side Company will, very probably, build a portion of their road in order to obtain a land grant to facilitate the building of their line to McMinnville. Kohn & Fishel are keeping up with railroad times. Their stock of spring goods coming across the continent by rail will be the largest and finest stock of Clothing ever imported to this State. Their stock in store now is offered very low to make room for large arrivals. They are manufacturing the neatest Boys' Suits and always have on hand a large stock of the same, which are offered at lowest figures.

The Infirmities of Age.

Decrepitude is the natural accompaniment of old age, but it may be ameliorated, and the period of entire helplessness long postponed by the judicious use of a healthful stimulant. Physicians, fully aware of this fact usually recommend moderate stimulation when the strength and vigor of maturity have been suspended by the feebleness and prostration which are the inevitable results of declining years. Port wine, gin, brandy and other liquors are often prescribed by medical men for aged persons, but the impulse which fermented and distilled liquors give to the circulation, and the energy they seem to impart is transitory, unless the alcoholic principle is modified and qualified by the presence of the medicinal tonics and invigorants. Of all the combinations of diffusive stimuli with the juices of herbs, roots and barks that have ever been administered to the aged and infirm, with the view of sustaining their waning strength, cheering their drooping spirits and relieving the aches and pains to which they are subjected, none has been found so efficacious and so permanent in its effects as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The difference between the effect of the Bitters and that of a mere excitant however pure, is the same as between the effect of a sudden and momentary application of excessive force to a given purpose, and the result of a steady, continuous application of exactly the requisite amount of force to the same end. The mere spirit of physical energy produced by a dram (and which is always succeeded by corresponding depression) never yet benefitted any man or woman suffering from physical decay. A cordial like Hostetter's Bitters, at once soothing and invigorating, is the remedial agent required.

The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

Retrenchment!

THE NUMBER OF GROCERY STORES IN PORTLAND is about sixty, with an average of three men to each, and about twenty of them run delivery wagons, making a total of one hundred and eighty men and twenty teams constantly employed to wait upon eight thousand people. Estimate the labor per man at three dollars per day, in one year it would amount to $160,[illegible] and the rents, keeping of horses, taxes, licenses, etc., at three dollars per day for each store and you have $[illegible] more, making a total of $262,800 annually for expenses alone. This is why the grocerymen must make their twenty per cent. or shut up shop.

Now we can supply the city with groceries with a force of twenty men and four delivery wagons, at an expense not exceeding $25,000, thereby saving $237,800 in expenses alone, which would enable us to sell goods at five per cent. profit instead of twenty, and make a net $237,800 divided among 8,000 people would give $32 to every man, woman and child, which they could actually save by centralizing on [illegible]

A Life's Lesson

[illegible] that life is a [illegible]
That we waste [illegible] we seek [illegible]
[illegible] will flash and [illegible] jangle
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]

I have learnt that our wisdom's all a dim knowledge,
And the efforts of children here below
On the lowest benches of Truth's great college
To guess at what grown up angels know;
That the child of five is the child [illegible]
And the sage [illegible] our highest lore
Is the lore of the babe that begins to grow.

I have learnt that the best and wisest nature
Is the childlike, simple, ungifted one
That is content to be God's small creature,
And ask no questions of star or sun;
That runs the race that is set before it
By the common daylight shining o'er it,
And waits for more till the race is run.

I have learnt that the commonest gifts [illegible]
Are the best and noblest, all is said;
That peace and kindness, when on homely faces
Are a glow from heaven directly shed;
That the Devil, disguised as Angel of Light,
Has much to do with the soaring flight
Of the restless heart and the seething [illegible].

I have learnt that a friend who is worth the having
Is a friend who will hurt you [illegible]
Will turn to ice at your sickly craving
For sympathy uttered by word and tone,
Will pull you with brave rough hands away
From the idols you build to your gods of clay
And break them down [illegible] you kneel again.

But the happiest lesson my life has taught me,
The one that my heart has learnt the best
Thro' all the pain that years have brought me,
Through disappointment and sore unrest,
It is to love and to rejoice in, more and more,
The treasures of nature's boundless store,
The innocent things which God hath blest.

The Scriptures in Congress

RELIGIOUS ENTHUSIASM OF MEMBERS

While Butler's Disability bill was up in the House recently there was a good deal of sentiment exhibited in favor of a general amnesty, and the spirit of forgiveness was abroad, especially on the Democratic side of the House. Butler himself was in a mellow mood and was extremely liberal in allowing everybody who wanted to speak an opportunity. Among those who took advantage of Butler's kindness was Judge Woodward, of Pennsylvania. He was too sick, he said, to speak himself so he got S. S. Cox to speak for him. Cox appeared in a new role. He held before him a copy of the Psalms, and he read from the 126th, about the return of the children of Israel from Babylonian bondage and how the people rejoiced thereat. But the reading of the Psalms, which, by the way, was executed in a style of pulpit elocution which would be no discredit to the most fashionable clergyman in New York, did not fully satisfy Mr Cox. He followed it with reading from the famous commentary of Bishop Clark on the Psalms, after the manner of the old fashioned Presbyterian preacher. The application of the sermon was that the Radical party should show a generous spirit toward the late rebels and grant them a general amnesty. Cox, it is said, takes well to the clerical profession, and a very slight twist in his character would have launched him into the pulpit instead of into Congress. Mackenzie, of Virginia, followed Cox in the same vein. He advised the Congressional congregation to read the twelfth chapter of St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans. Several members called out to know what the chapter was about, but Mackenzie was in such a fervor of religious enthusiasm and eloquence that he did not seem to hear. It was very evident that the House was fast approaching a frame of mind most favorable for a revival. Members began to brush up their recollections of Scripture, especially those portions that relate to forgiveness and revenge. John Covode, getting his hand in, tried to offset Cox's quotations from the Psalms, and Mackenzie's reference to the New Testament, with the story of King Benhadad, of Syria, and King Ahab, Israel. Covode told the story back end foremost, to the amusement of the whole house. At one time he had Benhadad slaughtering Ahab, and at another Ahab was getting the best of Benhadad. The whole sermon was very much mixed, whether from the excitement of the scene or from the condition of Covode's brain, was not ascertained. Sempronius H. Boyd, a sickly looking fellow from Missouri, followed Covode, with the evident intention of throwing oil upon the troubled waters which Covode stirred up. Nobody could ascertain his text, but the sermon was read from manuscript in the true clerical style and lasted just one minute. Mr. Boyd afterwards received the congratulations of his friends. The result of the entire debate, Scriptural dissertations, sermons on charity and all, was that Butler's bill went through. Cox made a decidedly eloquent appeal for general charity and received the warm congratulations of many men on both sides of the House.

American Slang.

The utter ignorance of the English of the signification of American slang expressions often causes some curious scenes between them and Yankee buyers in England, who seem to think that because their language generally is understood, all the American idioms will be. An expert buyer, junior partner in one of our large American firms, at a recent visit to his correspondent in an English manufacturing city, was complimented by the senior partner of the house, who insisted on personally showing goods to his American purchaser.

"There sir," said Dowlas, throwing out a roll of goods, "what do you think of that?"

"O, that's played out," said the American.

"It's what?" said Bull.

"It's played, I tell you," said his customer.

"Played—ah! really—we call it plaid h'yar in England, but this isn't plad—plad you know."

"No," said Yankee, "I don't mean plad. I mean 'ter say it's gone up."

"O, no," said Britisher, "not at all, it has not gone up but quite the contrary. We've taken off from the price."

"Over the left, it's three pence too high now."

"No doubt of it, but our neighbors on the left are not manufacturers you know."

"Very likely; but I don't care to be 'stuck' when I get home."

"Really. Most extraordinary. Is it as dangerous in New York as the newspapers say?"

"Yes, but I don't want these goods. I've got some already that will 'knock the spots out of 'em.'"

"But, my dear sir, there's no spots on the goods, I assure you. They are perfect."

"Well, well, suppose we 'switch off' on these goods, and try something else."

"Certainly!" and the Englishman, to the infinite amusement of the American, called a clerk with a wisp-broom and directed him to 'switch off' any dust he could find, while he proceeded to show something else.

"There," said the Englishman, triumphantly, spreading out another fabric, "there's the handsomest piece of goods in England—half a guinea yard."

"I can't see it," said his customer.

"Can't see it? Why you are looking straight at it, however, suppose you try the light of this window."

"No, I don't mean that," said the American, "I haven't got the stamps for such goods."

"Stamps! No stamps required but a bill stamp, which we are happy to furnish."

This misunderstanding might have continued longer had not one of the younger members of the house, seeing his senior's perplexity, rescued the American and put him through after the manner of his countrymen.—Boston Paper.

The Hoosier Democracy are in a pretty fix. At their State Convention, last month, they adopted a platform the tenth plank of which denounces negro suffrage and protests against the vote of the State being counted for the Fifteenth amendment. The amendment has since been ratified by a sufficient number of States so that all the negroes in the State will vote at the election in October. "Here's richness." This is a dilemma unlooked for. The Democrats can't retract their platform and so the negroes will be unanimously against them. This is only one more of those vivid illustrations that the Democratic party is always furnishing that the way of the transgressor is hard.

A preacher out in Iowa who cast off the sock and buskin for the gown and cassock, astonished his hearers the other day by announcing that his text might be found in Proverbs, Act iv, Scene [illegible].

Mining Intelligence

We learn from Idaho papers that good mining ground has been discovered near the head of Bruneau river. All accounts are to the effect that the late falls of snow are abundant and promise a certainty of an ample supply of water for the spring months and that all the miners are making more extensive preparations than for the last three years. In consequence the traders will buy more largely than heretofore of [illegible] supplies.

San Francisco Markets.

[BY MAIL.]

We obtain the following from the Alta's commercial article, March 10th:

There has been a very considerable improvement this week in the aspect of affairs generally. The supply of coin from Mint and country has been for some time increasing, and the fall of gold at the East, although the result of speculation for a decline, supported by the artificial action of the Treasury has awakened hopes that the moment may be seized by Congress to secure a return to cash payments, and by so doing equalize the currency of the nation once more. It is supposed by many that with an equalized currency money will come here for investment. The hopes so engendered, have imparted more confidence to business enterprise, and there are signs of more movement. The crops are considered safe and the mines are again improving. These are the great foundations of prosperity. There is a great demand for money in some directions, but the supply on long terms is more considerable.

The demand for money for duties from Jan 1st to March 10th, was $1,394,116 42. Same period 1869, $1,398,462 09.

Total export of treasure thus far in 1870 .... $8,008 570 21
Total imports 2 287,285 17

Excess of exports $5 721,285 04

Wheat—There has been a good demand for export during the last seven days, and for milling grades a fair inquiry.

Potatoes—Since our last weekly review, owing to fair receipts, there has been a decline in all descriptions.

Onions—In fair demand at $1 50a2 50, according to quality.

Bran—Sells at $16 50 ⅌ ton from mill.

Middlings—There is a good demand at $22 50 for feed and $27 50 for fine.

Hides—Sales for the week embrace 2,165 Calif[illegible] dry [illegible] usual selections at 17½a18½. Salted [illegible] at 7a7½c.

Tallow—Sales of 10 000 lbs, good beef and mutton at 10c. Quotable at 9½a10c.

Wool—We are still without anything of interest to report under this head. Quotations are nominal as follows: Burry, 8a10c; slightly burry, 10a[illegible]; good to choice shipping grade, 12a14.

Butter—Oregon, 15a20c.

Eggs—Oregon, quotable at 25c.

Hams—Oregon, 13½a14c.

Bacon—Oregon, 13½a14c.

Lard—Oregon, in kegs, 13½a14c.

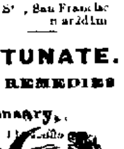
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of an early indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his special study for years and who is certain to cure them in inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.
